FOREWORD

WELCOME BACK TO PONYCON HOLLAND!

Less than a year ago I was writing the foreword for our first PCH. We were very lucky to be able to squeeze in our convention between lock-downs. Now that the world has (mostly) opened up again, the pony convention scene is back to its usual self! EponaFest, GalaCon, Czequestria and many others around the world have had successful editions this year. Although some may have doubted that our community could survive a two year gap, the message is clear: We're back!

We chose to give PonyCon Holland a theme this year: Fairytales vs Nightmares. And it is more than just a fancy name. You have already been divided into two teams and you can participate in activities to help your team win! Make sure to come to our opening ceremony where everything will be explained. We've prepared an awesome (and funny) play to start it all off with. You really don't want to miss it!

Some of you may already have been fans of My Little Pony before Twilight and her gang made a mess of Equestria (usually before fixing it 20 minutes later), but for most of us G4 is what brought us all together. At the moment G4 is still dominant in most art, plushies, and so on. However, by the time this guide gets printed the second Netflix special will have aired, so G5 will be well underway as well. Hopefully the new generation will continue to give us many new moments of fun and cuteness. I'm hyped for what's to come.

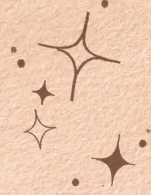

This year we have 3 Guests of Honour in our midst: Ingrid Nilson (voice of Maud, Marble -and my personal fav- Limestone Pie), Jenna Warren (voice of Sunny Starscout in the G5 series) and Thom Zahler (comic writer and artist). Of course we also have a very long list of artists, musicians, and other community guests. I'm sure that together we will make PonyCon Holland an awesome party again!

Let the fun begin!

After staying in the magical place of the Netherlands, have you seen anything of our culture yet? No? Well, this is your chance! Watch how our wonderful Guests of Honour get challenged (e.a. tortured) with some typical Dutch things! Firstly, we have made a selection of very ... interesting Dutch delicacies which they can taste. Then they will try to guess what some very fanciful Dutch sayings mean, which we translated to English for them. Which will not make it that much easier to understand them insert evil laugh. And at last, we will show them some very fun Dutch games which are not weird at all!

Systems of Magic in Equestria

by Fiaura the Tank Girl

Sunday 10:15-11:45 in the Panel Room

Thom Zahler Spotlight

Sunday 12:15-13:45 in the Panel Room

Come test your coordination in this ponified version of the American classic, cornhole! The game is simple: stand behind the line and toss your "waifus" (bean bags) at the target. The closer to the target your toss lands, the more points you score. At the end of the game, the person with the most points will get to keep their choice of bean bag!

Charity Auction

The penultimate event of any bronny convention, much like PonyCon Holland, is an auction in the name of collecting money for a donation. Flim and Flam are ready to make sure your wallets are squeezed for as much as there is left in there, after two days of PCH. Be generous, because this year all money raised goes to the illustrious "Dressuurstal Van Baalen" foundation!

The aim of the DVB Foundation is to support therapeutic horse riding for riders with a disability. DVB Foundation contributes to the physical and mental health of the rider.

With a unique approach and organization, DVB Foundation distinguishes itself from other foundations with the same goal. What is unique is that DVB Foundation primarily focuses on individual riders with a disability.

The DVB foundation helps by providing therapeutic classes to riders or with the financing of tailor-made solutions like magnetic stirrups and loop reins for riders with a disability so that they can continue to enjoy horse riding.

The rules of the auction are as follows:

- Items can be handed in until two hours before the start at the info booth.
- Bidding on an item is done by raising your hand, waving or holding up something visible like a poster or plushie.
- When not bidding for an item, keep your arms low. Flim and Flam will be all too anxious to count your bid, and collect your misplaced money for charity.
- A bid is permanent! If you are the highest bidder, but you get cold hooves, you are still the winner of the auction and have bought the item.
- Cash or card are accepted. As much as we value your immortal soul as payment, the charity might not.

ATM's marked with a yellow bubble

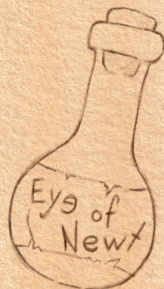

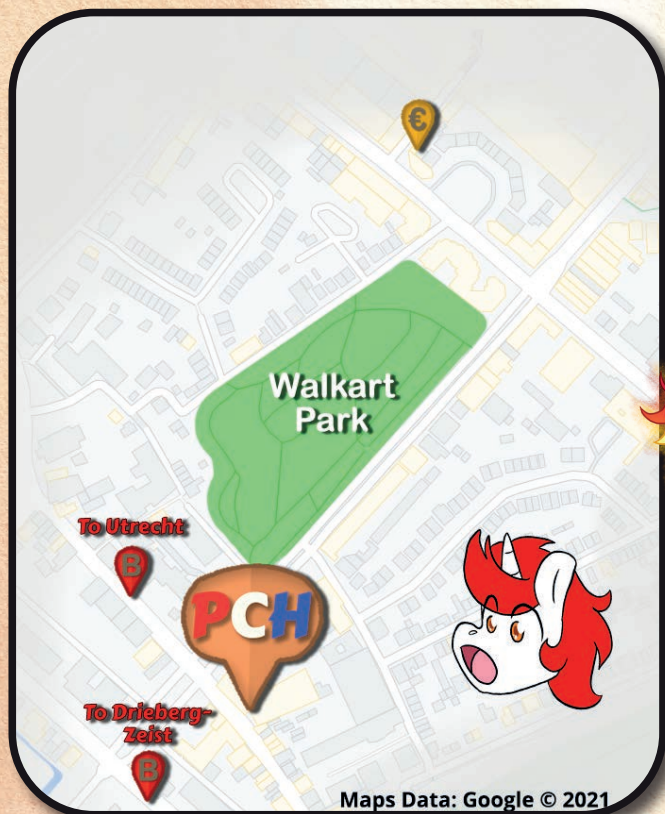

Most vendors nowadays will accept card payments, but it is good to have some cash on hand just in case. North of the venue, past the Walkartpark, there are a few ATMs in the inner city of Zeist.

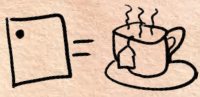

Busses marked with a red bubble

There are two busses that are important if you want to go to either Utrecht or Drieberg-Zeist. Use the 9292.nl website or app to plan your journey through Dutch public transport.

Walkart Park

To the north of the venue, there is the beautiful Walkartpark to get away from the venue a bit. Right in between the venue and the inner city, it is a nice place to stroll through to catch your breath.

FOOD & DRINKS

During the event, there will be a bar and a buffet next to the vendor hall where you can get various drinks and snacks. As well as lunch (between 12:00 and 14:00) and dinner (between 17:30 and 19:00). During the evening program on Saturday, there will be a bar on stage where you can order drinks.

The venue works with a coin system. These coins can be bought at the reception (downstairs). One coin costs €1,50.

Snacks

Almond paste cake	2 coins (€3,00)
Muffin	2 coins (€3,00)

FAIRYTALE VS NIGHTMARE

The story of Waffles and co is not over yet. You will decide how it ends. Will Waffles stay evil? Or will Poffertje and Fan Brush succeed on their EPIC QUEST to turn him back into a good boy? You can do this by successfully participating in various activities. For each of these, you will earn a stamp on the back of your badge. The more stamps you earn, the more points you get for your team based on the colour of your lanyard.

After participating in multiple activities, you can go to the info booth to get the points for your team. If you've earned four stamps, you get one point. For eight stamps you get two points. And for those of you insane enough to complete the whole set of activities, you get your team three points. There are some hidden ways of earning points for your team, so keep an eye out at the convention for unconventional means of winning the game. Dumbledore would be proud.

On the back of your badge, you find twelve numbered stamping areas. These correspond to the following objectives:

1. Spijkerpoepen. A classic dutch game. A nail will be tied to your belt. You will have a time limit to manoeuvre this nail into a glass bottle using only your waist. (see The Game on schedule)
2. Horseshoe toss. A classic pony game. Earn enough points during your turn to earn a stamp. (see The Game on schedule).
3. Pin the tail on the pony. A classic pony game... as well. You are blindfolded and given the tail of a pony. If you manage to pin the tail on the pony (correctly), you earn a stamp.
4. Oh no! Poffertje has lost her hat. Can you find out where it is? Maybe someone has borrowed it. If you can bro-hoof the individual who has the beret, you've earned yourself a stamp.
5. Gather 10 plushies and photograph yourself with them to earn a stamp*.
6. We might be in different teams, but we are still friends. Take a picture with someone who has a different lanyard*.

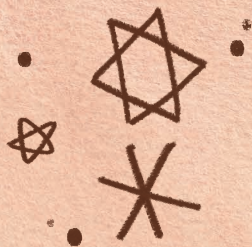

* The photos should contain your face, your badge, and what is required for the stamp. Show the picture to someone at the info booth to receive your stamp :D

MEET THE MASCOTS

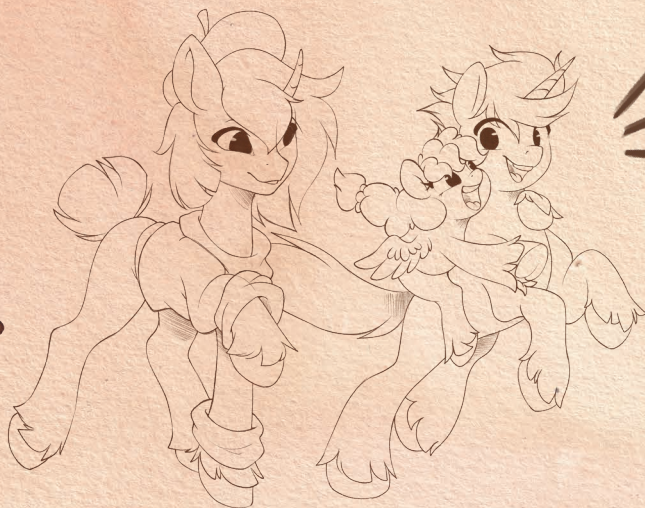

Waffles is the mascot of the Dutch bronny community, so for BroniesNL as well as PonyCon Holland. In Dutch, he is called Stroopwafeltje. Waffles loves fun and cannot get enough parties and games! When he is not busy hosting conventions, meet-ups, or parties, Waffles works in a bakery with his smaller colleague Poffertje. His favorite food is, of course, the famous stroopwafel.

Poffertje works in the same bakery as Waffles. Her name in Dutch describes teeny-tiny delicious pancakes. Poffertje is quite small but don't let her height deceive you. Her attitude is adding more than enough to her original height. Because she is so tiny, she gets lost in the Kitchen a lot, she always ends up with lots of powdered sugar in her hair.

Fan Brush is the creative and responsible part of the gang. Who else would keep the other two on the leash? They are responsible for all the lovely art for PCH. They even doodled all over this conbook. Fan Brush isn't a mare nor stallion. They're glad they have such supporting friends like Waffles and Poffertje.

Special Thanks

It takes a lot of special people to put together a convention. The PCH Committee has worked without a break since last year to make this second edition happen. But organizing a convention takes a lot more people. Without these incredible individuals, it would have been impossible. We would like to thank all of them.

Our guests

Panels, Workshops, Musical performances, delightful anecdotes from the industry, and many more experiences at PCH were made possible because of our guests. From panelists, community guests, musicians, and of course our Guests of Honour.

Our vendors

Many attendees hopefully were able to exchange their bits for awesome merch. PCH22 might be over, but our vendors ensured we could take a little piece of it home.

Our venue - The Figi Theater hotel

Two years in a row they put up with our shenanigans now. It has been a blast working with Figi, and their professional team.

Our volunteers

It is a fact of life that conventions can not run without these maniacs helping out. You have seen their red shirts all convention long, making sure that everyone had a good time. Thank you all for your hard work!

Our tech team

Without them we wouldn't even get the lights on. These people work extremely hard behind the scenes all weekend to give you the best experience possible.

Our sponsors

A convention costs a lot of money and never has it cost more than this time. The people willing to fund the convention deserve an extra thanks this year.

Our visitors

Last but definitely not least are the attendees of PCH, you all. Thank you all so much for making PonyCon Holland amazing once again. Maybe we will see each other again.

Typt, with the greatest of gratitudes,
PonyCon Holland's Organizing team.
